Name _____ Date _____

My homework

What makes homework hard for me:

_____

What would be better for me once my list is checked off:

_____

My steps

1. I write down, or say, what is due.
2. I choose the order.
3. If something big is due later, I put one small piece of it on today's list.
4. I do the first item on my list, and I check it off when it is done.
5. I do the same with the next item. Anything I don't finish stays on my list for tomorrow.
6. I compare my list with what is in my bag.

Then we check. Did I list what is due, pick the order and check off each one I finished?

If my grown-up reminds me once, it can still be Yes. If I need two or more reminders, do only two of the three parts, or copy a list my grown-up said, it is Almost.

If I have no homework, I list one thing for tomorrow. Listing that one thing counts as Yes. A day with no try is skipped. A day we both circle Not yet is skipped too.

When my grown-up and I circle the same Yes or Almost three practice days in a row, I start checking on my own.
